Slow and tardy progress in PMGSY

904. SHRI MANOJ BHATTACHARYA:
SHRI EKANATH K. THAKUR:

Will the Minister of RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government had launched some years back a massive road building programme, "Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana" to provide better connectivity to the rural areas;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) the progress achieved so far in its execution;

(d) the delay, if any, in the execution and the reasons for its slow and tardy progress; and

(e) the steps proposed to be taken to expedite the tempo of the work so as to ensure timely completion of the project?

THE MINISTER OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (DR. RAGHUVANSH PRASAD SINGH): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. The Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana was launched on 25th December, 2000. The programme seeks to provide connectivity to all eligible unconnected habitations in rural areas with a population of more than 500 persons, through good All-weather roads, by the end of Tenth Plan Period. In respect of the Hill States (North-East, Sikkim, Himachal Pradesh, Jammu & Kashmir, Uttaranchal), Desert Areas & Tribal (Schedule-V) areas, the objective is to connect habitations with a population of 250 persons and above.

(c) Statement indicating State-wise Physical and Financial Progress of PMGSY is given in the statement (See below).

(d) and (e) While the programme goal has been to connect the eligible unconnected habitations by the end of the Tenth Plan Period, the annual targets are determined by the budgetary allocation. In order to increase the fund availability for the programme, the steps taken include:

(i) additional budget allocation from the diesel cess; and

(ii) tapping multilateral funding from the World Bank and Asian Development Bank.

Statement
